That's a 90K-view—
(CRASH + bleep)

The image is a heavily blurred, high-speed video frame showing a road surface. A yellow curb runs diagonally from the top left towards the center. The road surface is a mix of grey and brown, with some white markings. The background is a clear blue sky. The overall image is very blurry, suggesting high speed or a crash.

The minute I saw him I felt uncomfortable. He came in told me to lay down, didn't even ask what the problem was. It was just a quick in and out experience and ill never go back or recomend it to anyone.
